

Curious Question Cards

Pick a question, adapt it or pass. An adult handles scissors if you cut the cards apart.

What did you notice first?

A question, not a test.

What would you like to ask?

A question, not a test.

Which part would you change?

A question, not a test.

What could we try another way?

A question, not a test.

What feels familiar here?

A question, not a test.

What is still unclear?

A question, not a test.

Which detail surprised you?

A question, not a test.

What would you like to explore next?

A question, not a test.

My own curious questions

Write or draw an original question. Not every question needs an immediate answer.

A question I have now

No personal or contact information is needed.

A question I might ask later

No personal or contact information is needed.

If a question is about religion, pronunciation, health or safety, ask a suitable qualified person. Do not guess an answer.